

The David Dukes Host Site of the Year Award

2009 Nomination Form

Host Site of the Year

David Dukes founded and tirelessly ran the after school program, Jobson-Brinson, in Madison, Florida. For 10 years he hosted alternative break groups to tutor, mentor, play and work with the students that relied on his home and agency for love, guidance, and often necessities like food and shelter. Of course Mr. Dukes had a huge impact on the children that came to the Jobson-Brinson Center day after day. Yet he also had a profound impact on the college students that had the opportunity to serve with him for a week, learning valuable skills and life long lessons of hope and perseverance.

The recipient Host Site will be chosen based on their commitment to building active citizenship and dedication to providing quality alternative break experiences while utilizing the efforts of alternative break groups.

Nominees for this award must be listed on the Break Away SiteBank. Nominations can be made by any 2008 - 2009 participant to the site.*

All nominations should be emailed to breakaway@alternativebreaks.org by 5 p.m. EST on May 8, 2009. Hard copies will not be accepted. Award winners will be announced on May 29, 2009.
