

The David Dukes Host Site of the Year Award

2010 Nomination Form

David Dukes founded and tirelessly ran the after school program, Johnson-Brinson, in Madison, Florida. For 10 years he hosted alternative break groups to tutor, mentor, play and work with the students that relied on his home and agency for love, guidance, and often necessities like food and shelter. Of course Mr. Dukes had a huge impact on the children that came to the Johnson-Brinson Center day after day. Yet he also had a profound impact on the college students that had the opportunity to serve with him for a week, learning valuable skills and life long lessons of hope and perseverance. He is currently working on a book chronicling his experience entitled, "A Journey Back Home: The Story of Johnson-Brinson and Break Away."

The recipient Host Site will be chosen based on their commitment to building active citizenship and dedication to facilitating quality service experiences while utilizing the efforts of alternative break groups.

Nominees for this award must be listed on the Break Away SiteBank. Nominations can be made by any 2009 - 2010 participant to the site.*

All nominations should be emailed to breakaway@alternativebreaks.org by 5 p.m. EST on Friday, April 2, 2010. Hard copies will not be accepted. Award winners will be announced on May 7, 2010. Winners will receive national recognition for their host site, a personalized trophy, acknowledgment of their achievement on our website, a letter of congratulations and a lifetime Break Away Host Site Membership ($100 value annually).
