Manuals

✓ Break Away: Organizing an Alternative Spring Break

This manual covers topics such as creating a break program, finances, selecting participants and program leaders, finding a site, and re-orientation. This is an invaluable resource for anyone who wants to start or improve an alternative break program at his or her school.

✓ Break Away: Hosting an Alternative Break

This manual is written expressly to help community-based organizations set up and host quality alternative breaks. It covers the logistics of student recruitment and setting up work plans, as well as supervision, liability and alcohol policies.

✓ Curriculum-Based Alternative Breaks

This manual is designed for students, faculty and administrators who want to connect alternative breaks with credited academic courses. It is full of resources to outfit readers with the tools needed to synergize quality community service with academic learning.

✓ The Break Away Site Leader Survival Manual

The alternative break Site Leader must act as teacher, project coordinator, alarm clock, and the link between host sites and participants. This manual covers every aspect of site leadership; from education and reflection techniques to safety and liability issues. It includes exercises, activities, and tips for Pre-Break, On-Break and Post-Break Programming.

Trainings & Events

✓ The Alternative Break Citizenship Schools (ABCS)

The ABCS teach students and staff the components needed to start or enhance an alternative break program on their campus. The ABCS are week-long training sessions held during the summer, which combine workshops, discussions, and speakers within an actual alternative break experience.

✓ Site Leader Retreats

An innovative, interactive training retreat for alternative break Site Leaders that expands knowledge of Group Building, Facilitation, Reflection, Education, Post-Break Programming, and Alcohol and Alternative Breaks. Retreats are scheduled in the fall for dates in late August through February.

Programs & Services

✓ Break Away Chapter Program

Groups interested in joining the national alternative break movement and gaining exclusive use of the Break Away name, logo, and resources can become institutional members of Break Away. All Chapters receive a Chapter Manual, access to the Trip Report Database and SiteBank, training, and a link to the national network of member schools through the Chapter School listserv. Associate Members receive a 10% discount on all products and services. Advantage Membership includes a 20% discount off products and services, a free registration to our national Alternative Break Citizenship Schools, and much more. You may download an application through our website at www.alternativebreaks.org.

✓ SiteBank

The SiteBank is a comprehensive list of potential alternative break work sites. It allows you to spend less time searching for places to work and more time planning other aspects of your break. The SiteBank provides site descriptions and contact information so that you can go directly from searching the SiteBank to developing a relationship with a host site.
